Main Streets & Historic Districts

Discover retail diversity while marveling at charming architecture and historic districts. Wander Old City, Knoxville, and sip Tennessee-grown grapes and fruit from Blue Slip Winery, East Tennessee's first urban winery. Enjoy the eclectic assortment at the Shoppes at Roper Mansion in Historic Dandridge.

Bristol's Historic District,

chock-full of antiques and specialty stores, will fulfill your wish list; while there, enjoy creative cuisine and learn more about East Tennessee's history. Walk downtown Chattanooga's Bluff View Art District, a delightful neighborhood of restaurants, gardens, an art gallery, sculpture garden, a B&B and historic homes with spectacular views of the Tennessee River.

Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, Collierville shows off its town square with quaint, one-of-a-kind boutiques, numerous antique stores, specialty shops and an old-fashioned gas station.

Town Squares & City Districts

Enjoy the local flavor of Tennessee's distinctly different town squares, where you have the best blend of rich history, remarkable architecture and smart shopping.

Tennessee's first town, Jonesborough, harbors great stories and imaginative shopping. With well-preserved buildings, the downtown creates a panoramic backdrop for great shopping and dining. Take home regional crafts, glass and jewelry from local artisans and handcrafted gifts from around the world. Anderson County is brimming with antiques, crafts and unique shops for decorative furniture, quilts, collectibles and hard-to-find items. Two historic shopping districts, downtown Clinton and Jackson Square in Oak Ridge, provide a perfect backdrop to a leisurely shopping trip.

Find Fayetteville fascinating as you enjoy a tour of its historic downtown. Bell Buckle, a railroad village of preserved and restored Victorian homes and churches, is known for antiques, quilts, handmade crafts, country music, home cooking and the charming marketplace.

Explore Centerville Square, and drop by Breece's Cafe for noteworthy fare. Legendary Grinder's Switch, Minnie Pearl's self-created town, is home to memorabilia, recordings and a gift shop.

Check out Bolivar's farmers market, featuring delicious fare in an open-air, post-and-beam, Douglas fir structure. Country music favorites ring out in the courthouse amphitheater. Bolivar's broad, sweeping sidewalks portend a truly delightful shopping experience.

Originally settled in 1871 by Irish railroad workers, Erin has a two-mile walking trail along the abandoned railroad bed. The trail runs through the historic district of gift and craft shops, Victorian homes and a railroad pavilion with outdoor tables.

Fascinating Franklin on Foot, just outside Nashville, is a multiple-choice way to commune with the beautifully preserved square and beyond. Among the stops are St. Paul's Episcopal Church, with Tiffany windows, and the antebellum courthouse. F. M. Allen menswear dresses those in the know. Take advantage of downtown dining at its best. Among the crop: the Bunganut Pig; Dotson's, Southern meat 'n' three (Martha Stewart loves Dotson's biscuits); Franklin Mercantile Deli and Puckett's Grocery and Restaurant.

Specialty Shops

Our specialty shops run the gamut of music and art, boutiques, books, spas and sporting goods. Tennessee is synonymous with great music of all kinds. From national chains to unexpected, exclusive music shops, we can put you in touch with a fantastic Tennessee soundtrack for your travels. Our cherished tradition of handcrafted art and fine crafts is alive and well. Shop our artist communities and galleries for earthy, soul-filled pieces to serve as reminders of your Tennessee travels.

When it's time to pamper yourself, there's nothing like a spa to get you ready for your next adventure. Find the perfect place for a facial, massage, manicure or mud bath and say, "Ah!" Then take time to accessorize. Go home looking like the star that you are with baubles and beads and beautiful apparel from boutiques and jewelry stores.

Lose yourself in a good book—or just a good bookstore. You can find something great in Tennessee's big bookstores, unique reading corners, used and rare book collections.

Whether you are en route to the outer limits, a local watering hole or the top of the world, Tennessee's knowledgeable sporting gear outfitters will make sure you have all the gear to get there without a hitch. Ask questions, learn about local highlights and quickly get on your way to enjoying a great day in Tennessee.

Made in Tennessee

Pack extra shopping bags—with so many specialty shops, arts and crafts communities, farmers markets and galleries to explore, you are sure to fill them. From distinctive keepsakes to handmade treasures to distinctly Tennessee flavors, the best collectibles are made right here in Tennessee.

Take home true Tennessee with homegrown delights from Jack Daniel's, Purity Dairy and Hatch Show Print, or visit a local artist and bring home a piece handcrafted just for you. If you have a taste for something juicier, bite into crisp produce grown by local growers or grab some organic honey, sweet preserves or fresh herbs. Pick up extra because Tennessee-made is the perfect gift.
